

Broken Bow Municipal Utilities
Deposit Due to Shut-Off Due Date Policy

Per City of Broken Bow Ordinance 975, upon disconnect for non-payment, Broken Bow Municipal Utilities may require up to two additional security deposits to total an amount sufficient to equal the highest three months total utility bills.

As of this date, the due date for additional deposits due to shut-off will be changed to 10 working days after the related shut-off date.

If Broken Bow Municipal Utilities does not receive the additional required deposit due to shut-off within 10 working days the service will be disconnected and the customer will be subject to additional service charges and deposits.

Passed and approved this 28th day of March, 2016.
